1. General Terms

1.1. These Regulations on Non-Trading Operations have been developed within the framework of International cooperation measures aimed to fight against financial irregularities, expose and prevent law violations, and set principles for performing non-trading operations on a Client's Account with « Trading Company Limited », registered trademark « Trading Company » (hereinafter - the Company and/or « Trading Company »)

1.2. The Financial Monitoring Department ("Department") will exercise control over the implementation of these Regulations on Non-Trading Operations within the Company.

1.3. The Client shall guarantee the legal source, lawful possession and right to use the funds being transferred to the Company's Account ("Client Account").

1.4. The Company « Trading Company » reserves the right to investigate the nature of any suspicious nontrading operations listed in clause 2 of these Regulations on Non-Trading Operations, whereupon such operations will be suspended until the reasons for their occurrence are clarified and the investigation is completed.

1.5. During the course of an investigation, in accordance with clause 1.4. of these Regulations, the Department shall have the right to request that the Client provide proof of identity, payment and other documents confirming the lawful possession and legal source of the funds.

1.6. If suspicious non-trading operations should be exposed, the Company shall have the right to:

- * refuse to perform these operations;

- * limit fund withdrawal from the Client's Account through any method at the Company's discretion;

- * Return any funds deposited earlier from the Client's Account to any requisites from which the deposit was made to this trading account;

- * write off any commissions or bonuses owed to the Client for non-trading operations;

1.7. Refusal to perform suspicious non-trading operations or termination of relations with the Client as a result of suspicious non-trading operations performed by the Client shall not warrant the imposition of civil liability upon the Company for breach of agreement.

1.8. The Company « Trading Company » shall have the right to amend at its sole discretion the terms of these Regulations at any time giving the Client (3) (three) business days prior notification in one or several ways described in clause 3.1 of these Regulations. Such amendments will become effective on the date specified in the notification.

1.9. These Regulations are transparent and are an integral part of any agreement concluded between the Company « Trading Company » and the Client.

1.10. In the case that certain clauses of these Regulations do not correspond to certain clauses of the Client Agreement or the Terms of Business, the clauses of these Regulations shall prevail. This circumstance shall not render other terms of the aforementioned documents invalid.

1.11. The content of these Regulations shall be disclosed without limitation upon the request of any interested party.

1.12. Should there be no clear definition of a term set out in the text of these Regulations, the interpretation of the term shall be governed firstly by the definition given in the corresponding Regulations located in the "Regulatory Documents" section of «Client Portal» and on the Company's website « Trading Company », and secondly, by the definition given in the Client Agreement.

2. Detection Criteria and Characteristics of Suspicious Non-Trading Operations

2.1. The Department can declare a non-trading operation suspicious in the event of:

- * Exposure of abuse of transfers without completing trading operations on the trading account;

- * Revelation of unusual nature of operations that do not have obvious economic substance or obvious legal purpose;

- * revelation of circumstances implying that the operations are performed for the purpose of money laundering or financing terrorism;

- * failure of the Client to provide identification information, submission of inaccurate information and/or the impossibility to contact the Client at the addresses and telephone numbers specified;

- * failure of the Client to provide identification information for the beneficiary, i.e. a person for the benefit of whom the Client acts (in particular, on the basis of an agent contract, commission and trust management contracts, while carrying out non-trading operations);

* Submission of false or invalid documents.

2.2. The operations specified shall be detected by subjective evaluation of Department employees through a daily analysis of non-trading operations.

2.3. The criteria for detection and characteristics of suspicious non-trading operations specified in clause (2.1.) are neither mandatory nor comprehensive. The Department can declare a non-trading operation suspicious on the basis of analysis of the nature of a non-trading operation, its components, attending circumstances and interaction with the Client or the Client's representative.

2.4. In the case that suspicious non-trading operations are exposed, the decision made regarding further actions in relation to the Client and non-trading operations shall be at the sole discretion of the Department.
